DEPARTMENT OF MASTER OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

HR Club Activity

Activity Name = Back to Back Drawing

Objective = The objective of the activity is to improve communication, collaboration and teamwork within a group or team. This activity is often used in team building or leadership development.

Instructions:

- Break your team into pairs and they have to sit back-to-back.
- Give one teammate a pen and a sheet of paper.
- Give the other member an image and ask him/her to describe what the image is without revealing it.
- Ask the teammate with a pen and paper to draw the image based on the descriptions being provided.
- Once the drawing is complete, it is compared with the real image and each pair can share whether or not they had difficulty communicating.

OUTCOME: The outcome of the activity is a combination of improved interpersonal skills, enhanced team dynamics and a greater understanding of the importance of effective communication and collaboration in the workplace.
