Greetings.....!

We welcome all faculty and staff members at Ambalika Institute of Management & Technology and wish a long run success.

At our Institute, we believe that each faculty contributes directly to the growth and success of the Organization, and hope they will take pride as being a member of our team.

This hand book is developed to describe some of the expectations of our faculty and to outline the policies, programs and benefits available to the eligible faculty. Faculty should become familiar with the contents of HR policies and it will answer many questions about the employment with AIMT.

We believe that professional relationships are easier when all faculty are aware of the culture and values of the organization. This guide will help all faculty to better understand our vision & mission for the future Academic challenges that are ahead for the growth of organization.

We hope that experience of all faculty will be challenging, on job learning, enjoyable and rewarding.

With Best Wishes,

HR Manager

CEO'S WELCOME MESSAGE

Warm welcome to Ambalika Group of Institution and appreciate you to take up teaching as a mission. I assure you that you will have an enriching experience at Ambalika Group of Institution. We believe in strong emphasis on personality development and no compromise on the quality and code of ethics. The institution is committed to foster the pursuit of excellence in academic, cultural, social and physical activities. Ambalika Group of Institution provides an ideal atmosphere where one can learn, observe, introspect and contemplate. Keeping in view the institution- industry interaction for major placement objective, significant emphasis is laid on presentation skills, technical trainings such as in robotics, CNC, AUTO CAD, 3D printing etc, seminars, workshops, industrial visits and projects.

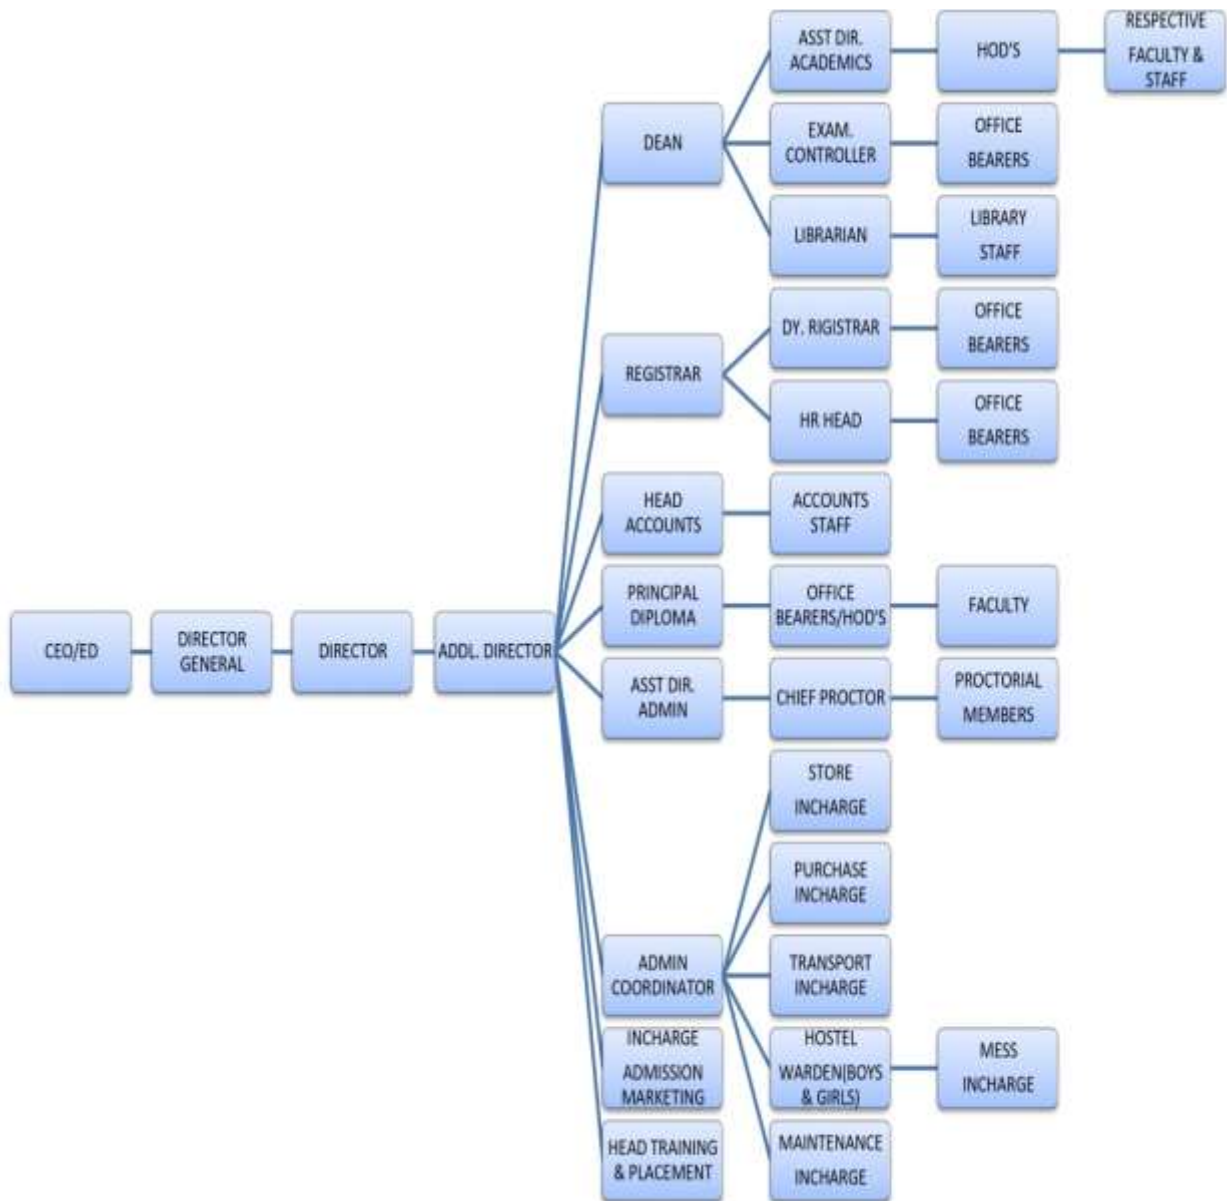

It is the duty of a teacher to draw out best from his / her Students through a benevolent rapport. He has to be not just fulfilling the traditional role, but has to be a mentor / guide to every single student. Winning the confidence of a student is precious asset that a teacher will do well to acquire,

Although I have addressed this letter mainly to the teaching faculty, the ideas and thoughts mentioned therein, also hold good for non-teaching staff as well, in their own sphere of activity, where new ideas, new ways of doing things, innovations and improvements are of paramount importance.

On behalf of Ambalika Group of Institution, I thank you for having a trust in us and we commit you to give our best to make your dreams come true.

Ambika Misra
CEO

FACULTY PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL PROCESS

Students are the main focus of the Institutes pedagogical process and in the interest of transparency, students' evaluation of faculty performance is a fundamental element of the appraisal process. Furthermore, conducting research and engaging in studies is among the core functions of a faculty. This appraisal process reflects and governs the faculty's degree of commitment to his/her designated responsibilities. The following are the core aspects.

- First the planning from the beginning of the semester, based on the overall priorities of the Institute and the University and on the goals of the faculty.
- Second the implementation phase during the semester reaching to the stage of students' evaluation of faculty performance in teaching their courses during that particular semester (Odd & Even).
- Third the utilization of the feedback received which shall contribute to the enhancement of faculty performance development plan, which would result in the improvement and sustainability of his/her performance and simultaneously accelerate the development of the Institute's performance.

STEPS OF APPRAISAL PROCESS -

These steps will also ease the process of obtaining data to help the performance level of the Institute. Therefore, the faculty performance evaluation form shall include the following:

1. Personal information of the faculty.
2. Courses taught by the faculty during the academic year.
3. Research activities (papers in scientific journals, books, arbitration, supervising theses, etc.) carried out during the academic year.
4. Co - curricular activities (conferences, seminars, workshops, training courses, etc.) in which he/she has participated.
5. Students' evaluation of all the faculty in Odd and Even semesters.
6. Head of the Departments, Dean, Convener R&D Cell and Asst. Director (Admin).’S performance evaluation.

The attached form should be used with any documents that provide evidence on the areas covered in the form which must be verified by the HR Department.
